BY JOVE! WHO KNEW?!!! 9 Cheeky Reasons to Visit Britain in 2019

LITTLETON, Colorado – October 9, 2018 – In 2019, Globus, Cosmos and NEW Cosmos Lite are getting cheeky, showing travelers the undiscovered places that tell the stories and secrets of what makes Great Britain so GREAT with nine (9) Undiscovered Britain vacations, including six (6) NEW tours for 2019.

“There’s nothing easy about planning a vacation, especially when visiting the less-traveled areas of England, Scotland and Wales,” said Scott Nisbet, president and CEO of the Globus family of brands. “As part of our Undiscovered Britain series of tours, we handle everything from research to reservations – even driving on the ‘wrong’ side of the road – so our travelers need only focus on the wonders that make Britain so great.”

In 2019, travelers wandering on cobblestones-less-traveled on an Undiscovered Britain tour will enjoy hops and Scotch, rock stars and famous rocks, gothic aisles and spectacular isles while encountering some fun facts behind the lore.

Here are nine (9) “secret” reasons to discover Great Britain in 2019:

1. Everywhere in England is no more than 75 miles from the sea.
2. The world’s oldest music shop opened in Cardiff, Wales in 1894.
3. The first chocolate bar was invented in Bristol, England in 1847.
4. The typical dram of Scotch may have aged for three or more years, but the peat used to dry the barley is somewhere between 1,000- to 5,000-years-old.
5. Accents noticeably change about every 25 miles in Britain.
6. The Fab Four went through several band names – like Quarrymen – before landing on The Beatles.
7. The “007” code for James Bond was inspired by Author Ian Fleming’s everyday bus route.
8. Scots invented the game of golf.
9. Scotland’s national animal is the unicorn!
